"I ALWAYS WANTED TO, BUT NOBODY ENCOURAGED ME OR TOLD ME HOW!"

The 3rd annual 2013 Art Career Day Conference "ACDC" is a FREE conference that will provide teens and young adults with a chance to share a full day with 40 professional artists.

ACDC is a collaboration between Art Without Limits, Carey Hobart, Dug Uyesaka, SBCC Theatre Department, Rod Lathim, Santa Barbara Bowl, Santa Barbara County Arts Commission - Ginny Brush, Santa Barbara County Partners in Education and Santa Barbara Teen Star.

Shirin Rajeea, KEYT3 newscaster, will emcee the event. Conference attendees will learn firsthand what it takes to earn a living as a professional artist, and will leave assured that our Santa Barbara artists are available to help, guide and mentor them, and are just a phone call away.

Among the topics for this year's roundtable discussion groups are theater, dance, theater technology (makeup, set design, lighting and sound), film, TV production, literature (poetry, prose, and journalism), costume, fashion, and fabric design. art galleries and museums, visual arts, architecture, sculpture, assemblage, painting, graphic arts and web design, photojournalism, fashion and portrait photography.

To be considered as the featured artist for next year's event, teen and young adult artists can send their visual work by December 15, 2013 to julie@awolsb.org. Please send jpg 300 dpi and at least 4"x 6".
